CHRISTMAS AT HEDGEHOG HILL

This year it's Merry Christmas of two thousand and ten,
Lo and behold, our Nola is also ten !
Ten long years she's eyed that tree...
The stories are legend, this year we'll see!
What little tricks she'll come up with to get her way,
Her favorite old ornaments have yet to see the day...
Despite being snatched and damaged they're still here too,
Miss Bunny and Mountain Man, ragged but not yet through!
Nola runs to the couch when the boxes come out,
Filled with ornaments galore, she won't touch or Mom will shout!
Leave that alone you know better than that!!!
Yes Nola says, I'll blame it on my son Jammer or Moet the cat!
Should some event occur in the dark of the night,
When no creatures are stirring, (yeah right!!!)
She keeps a close watch for Santa, are there deer in the yard?
Remember the year she was blamed and the loss was hard?
Glass ornaments smashed and mom in tears,
But it wasn't Nolie it was Moet the cat that year!!!
We can't seem to find that poem it was legend !
Moet probably hid it, as it was heck she was getting !
This year there's a new one, little JenJen is here !
But a Christmas without our Woody is still sad I fear,
But this year we're thankful, our Mia's still here...
Breaking in another puppy she's the best, she's a dear.

Miss Giddy never bothers, she just watches the glow,
She loves the tree lights, next to the tree she goes.
And watches the lights play on the ceilings so high,
Til she falls asleep waiting to give Santa his pie.
Jammer waits for presents he opens them fast!!!
A rip and a tear his presents never last !!!
He'll help little Maura open hers as well,
She just rocks in her rocker, ringing her Christmas collar bells.

Nola's just waiting to set the bar high,
Of Christmas ornament mischief she's always been so sly !
Who knows what's up her sleeve, we never know that!
But maybe this year she'll leave them,
she so loves her new Grinch hat!

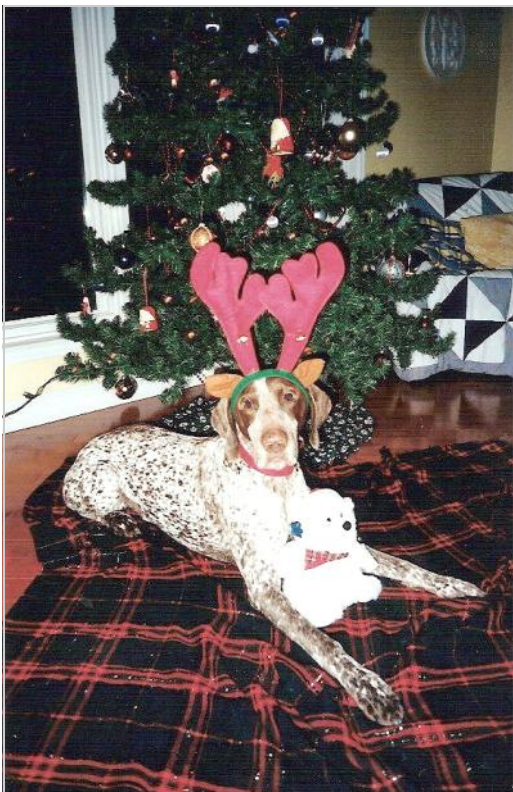

*Happy Holidays to all from Hedgehog Hill
